

ICT Specialist Bohill Consulting Wins Selected Supplier Contract with Invest Northern Ireland

Bohill Consulting is the selected supplier to deliver Technical Appraisal Services to Northern Ireland's Economic Development Agency

Belfast, Northern Ireland, 10th September 2010 – Bohill Consulting, a specialist provider in Information Technology, Software and Telecommunication consultancy, today announces that it has won a contract to become a selected provider of Technical Appraisal Services to Invest Northern Ireland, Northern Ireland's economic development agency. Bohill Consulting will join an exclusive list of service suppliers chosen to deliver consultancy on technical appraisals to projects and companies as part of Invest Northern Ireland's Established Framework of Technical Advisors to Appraise Applications for Financial Assistance. Bohill Consulting successfully bid for the three year contract via a public tender process.

Commenting on the new contract, Bohill Consulting's Principal Consultant James Burns said: "A rigorous and substantiated appraisal of financial viability is absolutely fundamental for organisations looking to commercially exploit technology developments. Using proven methodologies Bohill Consulting is able to address issues such as technical viability and validity, merits and risk, industrial relevance, reasonableness of costs, degrees of innovation and potential benefits".

"We're very excited to be working with Invest Northern Ireland and look forward to undertaking technical appraisals for both companies and research organisations."

Bohill Consulting delivers dynamic and innovative business solutions to the ICT industry. Bohill provides 'Concept to Delivery' Consultancy including Pre-Investment Due Diligence, Technical Appraisals, Project Management, Business Planning and Management.
